II. BACKGROUND

A. Factual Background

The present shareholder derivative and proxy litigation arises out of data breaches experienced by Yahoo between 2013 and 2016. In late 2014, Yahoo was the subject of a data breach by Russian state-sponsored actors that affected 500 million Yahoo user accounts (“2014 Security Incident”). In 2015 and 2016, an unauthorized third party accessed the Company’s proprietary code to forge cookies that could allow an intruder to access users’ accounts without a password (“Forged Cookies Incident”). The Company believes that some of this activity was connected to the same state-sponsored actor believed to be responsible for the 2014 Security Incident. In 2013, Yahoo was a subject of a separate data breach, which collectively affected all 3 billion Yahoo user accounts (“2013 Security Incident” and, together with the 2014 Security Incident and the Forged Cookies Incident, the “Security Incidents”).

On July 22, 2016, Yahoo entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (“SPA”) with Verizon for the sale of Yahoo’s operating assets to Verizon for $4.8 billion (“Verizon Transaction”).

On September 22, 2016, Yahoo issued a press release disclosing the 2014 Security

1 Incident. On December 14, 2016, Yahoo disclosed that it was also the subject of a breach in 2013, 2 affecting 1 billion Yahoo user accounts — the 2013 Security Incident.

3 On February 20, 2017, following Yahoo's disclosure of the 2013 and 2014 Security 4 Incidents, Yahoo and Verizon entered into an amendment to the SPA that, among other things, 5 reduced by $350 million the consideration to be paid by Verizon to Yahoo.

6 On October 3, 2017, Oath, a subsidiary of Verizon, disclosed that the 2013 Security 7 Incident affected all 3 billion Yahoo user accounts instead of 1 billion Yahoo user accounts as 8 initially disclosed.

9 Plaintiffs in the California Derivative Action, Delaware Derivative Action, and Federal 10 Derivative Action allege that the Individual Defendants breached their fiduciary duties by failing 11 to timely disclose and concealing the Security Incidents. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendant 12 Verizon aided and abetted the Individual Defendants' breaches of fiduciary duties. Defendants 13 deny the allegations. As set forth in further detail below, on May 24, 2017, and June 6, 2017, 14 Yahoo made certain supplemental proxy disclosures in response to the Proxy Litigation.

15 B. The Action in Delaware Chancery Court

16 In October 2016, Oklahoma made a demand upon Yahoo pursuant to 8 Del. Code § 220 to 17 inspect Yahoo's books and records. Oklahoma then filed a derivative complaint on behalf of 18 Yahoo in the Delaware Chancery Court. On April 10, 2017, Oklahoma notified Defendants that 19 it agreed to coordinate with counsel for the California Plaintiffs in jointly litigating the action in 20 California State Court. Thereafter, Oklahoma was appointed lead plaintiff by Delaware Chancery 21 Court, stayed its action, and obtained Yahoo's consent to use the documents obtained through the 22 § 220 inspection demand in California State Court.

23 On April 19, 2017, California Co-Lead Counsel advised the California State Court that 24 plaintiffs' counsel in the Delaware Derivative Action had agreed to stay their action and litigate 25 all derivative claims in California State Court. Delaware Plaintiff's Counsel submitted notices of 26 appearance on behalf of the plaintiffs in the California Derivative Action, and the Court approved 27 their pro hac vice applications.
28

1 C. The Actions in Federal Court

2 On February 16, 2017 and February 17, 2017, two shareholder derivative actions were filed 3 in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California (“Federal Court”) by 4 certain of the Federal Plaintiffs. On May 15, 2017, the Federal Court granted the Federal Plaintiffs’
5 motion to consolidate and appointed lead counsel. The Federal Plaintiffs filed a consolidated
6 complaint on July 6, 2017, containing confidential information derived from an inspection demand 7 made by Edith Liss, one of the Federal Plaintiffs. By order dated September 25, 2017, the Federal 8 Court granted a stipulation entered into by the parties and stayed the Federal Derivative Action.

9 D. Actions in California State Court

10 On February 9, 2017, Plaintiffs LR Trust and Harold Litwin filed the first shareholder 11 derivative action in the Superior Court of California, Santa Clara County and assigned to the 12 Honorable Brian C. Walsh (“California State Court” or the “Court”).

13 On March 7, 2017, Plaintiff Patricia Spain filed a shareholder class action and derivative 14 action in the California State Court, asserting both (1) a direct claim against Yahoo’s officers and 15 directors for breach of fiduciary duty and a direct claim against Verizon for aiding and abetting 16 breach of fiduciary duty and (2) derivative claims on behalf of Yahoo against Yahoo’s officers and 17 directors for breach of fiduciary duty, corporate waste, and violation of California Corporation 18 Code §§ 25402 and 25403 (insider trading).

19 On May 25, 2017, Plaintiff Plumbers and Pipefitters National Pension Fund (“Plumbers”)
20 commenced a related shareholder derivative action in the California State Court.

21 1. California Plaintiffs Obtain Expedited Discovery and Pursue a Motion for 22 Preliminary Injunction in the California State Court Action

23 On March 20, 2017, in furtherance of her direct claims and to protect Yahoo shareholders’
24 right to vote on the proposed Verizon transaction, Plaintiff Spain moved to lift the discovery stay 25 and for limited expedited discovery. Defendants opposed the expedited discovery. At a hearing 26 on March 30, 2017, the California State Court granted Plaintiff Spain’s motion in part and lifted 27 the discovery stay. After a meet and confer that also took place on March 30, 2017, Yahoo agreed 28 to produce documents in response to 12 out of 14 requests for production of documents and agreed

1 to produce Defendant McInerney for a deposition. On April 18, 2017, pursuant to Plaintiff Spain's 2 motion to compel further discovery, the California State Court ordered Yahoo to produce 3 additional documents and also ordered Yahoo to produce Defendant Brandt for a deposition.

4 In response to the California State Court's orders, Yahoo produced over 33,000 pages of 5 documents to the California Plaintiffs between April 7, 2017, and April 28, 2017.

6 Plaintiff Spain deposed Defendants McInerney and Brandt on April 28, 2017 and May 9, 7 2017, respectively. Subsequently, Plaintiff Spain served deposition subpoenas on two additional 8 percipient fact witnesses, third-parties Alex Stamos and Ramses Martinez. Defendants and Stamos
9 and Martinez moved to quash the deposition subpoenas. On May 24, 2017, the California State 10 Court denied the motions to quash. Plaintiff Spain deposed Stamos and Martinez on May 25, 11 2017.

12 On May 17, 2017, Plaintiff Spain moved for a preliminary injunction, seeking to enjoin 13 Yahoo shareholders' vote on the transaction until Yahoo made additional disclosures allegedly 14 relevant to the proxy. The motion identified eight allegedly material omissions from the proxy.
15 Defendants opposed the motion.

16 On May 24, 2017, Yahoo provided supplemental disclosures, disclosing some of the facts 17 that Plaintiff Spain contended were material and omitted from the proxy.

18 The California State Court held a hearing on Plaintiff Spain's motion for preliminary 19 injunction on June 6, 2017. Following the hearing, the California State Court granted in part and 20 denied in part the motion for preliminary injunction. Among other things, the Court concluded
21 that Yahoo's May 24, 2017 filing mooted or addressed four out of the eight allegedly material
22 omissions identified by Plaintiff Spain. The Court further found in Plaintiff Spain's favor as to 23 one of the remaining four material omissions and ordered Yahoo to provide further supplemental 24 disclosures, advising the shareholders of the value of the purchase price adjustment. Following 25 the hearing, these disclosures were provided by Yahoo on June 6, 2017 via the filing of a 26 supplement to the proxy statement on Schedule 14A. Yahoo's stockholder voted to approve the 27 sale to Verizon, and the transaction closed on June 13, 2017, as originally scheduled.

28 2. The California State Court Derivative Litigation

1 On July 12, 2017, the California State Court consolidated the three pending actions
2 (“California Derivative Action”) and appointed Bottini & Bottini, Inc. and Cotchett, Pitre &
3 McCarthy LLP (“California Co-Lead Counsel”) as co-lead counsel. As set forth below, California 4 Plaintiffs and their counsel have actively litigated the California Derivative Action.

5 On August 3, 2017, the California Plaintiffs filed a consolidated complaint. The 6 consolidated complaint contained extensive detail of the underlying factual allegations, including 7 from both the § 220 document production and the expedited Proxy Litigation, some of which was 8 designated confidential by Defendants. On September 5, 2017, defendants moved to strike 9 portions of the consolidated complaint, arguing that the parties’ signed confidentiality agreement 10 governing the permitted use of confidential discovery material barred the use of the expedited 11 discovery from the Proxy Litigation in the derivative complaint. On September 19, 2017, the 12 California Plaintiffs filed their opposition to the motion to strike. After briefing, the California 13 State Court denied the motion to strike, and allowed the use of the discovery from the Proxy 14 Litigation in the consolidated complaint.

15 Defendants filed both a demurrer and a motion to stay the California Derivative Action in 16 favor of the Federal Derivative Action, a related securities class action, and a related customer 17 class action, each pending at the time in the Federal Court. On November 2, 2017, following 18 briefing and a hearing, the California State Court held that the causes of action styled as direct 19 were, in fact, derivative causes of action, sustained Defendants’ demurrer on demand-futility 20 grounds as to each cause of action in the consolidated complaint, and granted Plaintiffs 60 days’ 21 leave to amend. On November 8, 2017, following briefing and supplemental briefing, the 22 California State Court denied Defendants’ motion to stay, without prejudice to Defendants’ ability 23 to renew the motion later if they could identify a specific, developed conflict with one of the related 24 federal actions.

25 3. California Writ Action

26 By letter dated November 21, 2017, Plaintiff Spain, through her counsel, requested to 27 inspect certain books and records of Altaba. Altaba responded to Plaintiff Spain’s demand by 28 letter dated December 5, 2017. The parties met and conferred, and on January 9, 2018, and

1 February 15, 2018, Altaba offered to produce some, but not all, of the documents sought by 2 Plaintiff Spain, but the parties were unable to resolve their disputes.

3 On January 12, 2018, Plaintiff Spain filed a verified petition for a writ of mandate, seeking 4 an order pursuant to California Corporations Code § 1601 and the common law compelling Altaba 5 to produce the books and records sought in Plaintiff Spain's inspection demand ("Writ Action").
6 Pursuant to Corporations Code §1604, Plaintiff Spain also sought her attorneys' fees and costs 7 incurred to bring the action.

8 The Writ Action was assigned for all purposes to Judge Walsh, who is presiding over the 9 California Derivative Action. On February 16, 2018, Altaba filed a demurrer to the Writ Action 10 petition. On March 21, 2018, Altaba represented that it produced all non-privileged Board and 11 Board committee minutes and materials in response to Plaintiff Spain's inspection demand that 12 she had not already received in prior productions. Plaintiff Spain asserted that, under § 1601 and 13 the common law, she was entitled to receive additional document beyond what had been produced 14 and indicated an intent to dispute certain of Yahoo's privilege claims. On April 27, 2018, the court 15 overruled the demurrer. On May 15, 2018, Altaba filed its answer.

16 4. California Plaintiffs' Amended Consolidated Complaint

17 On January 2, 2018, the California Plaintiffs filed an amended consolidated complaint, 18 alleging six causes of action: (1) derivative claim for breach of fiduciary duty against the 19 Individual Defendants; (2) derivative claim for corporate waste against the director defendants; (3) 20 direct claim for breach of fiduciary duty against the Individual Defendants; (4) direct claim for 21 aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty against Verizon; (5) derivative claim for aiding and 22 abetting breaches of fiduciary duty against Verizon; and (6) derivative claim for breach of fiduciary 23 duty for insider trading and misappropriation of information against Defendants Marissa Mayer, 24 Ronald Bell, Kenneth Goldman, and David Filo.

25 Defendants demurred to the amended complaint on February 22, 2018. Plaintiffs filed 26 opposition briefs on April 4, 2018, and Defendants filed reply briefs on May 1, 2018. The hearing 27 on the Defendants' demurrers was scheduled for August 10, 2018.

28 E. The Litigation Progress and Extensive Settlement Negotiations

1 As set forth above, California Plaintiffs' Counsel have already reviewed more than 33,000
2 pages of documents produced by Yahoo in response to the Delaware and California inspection
3 demands as well as in response to the California State Court's orders allowing expedited discovery
4 in the Proxy Litigation. These documents included, among other things, minutes, agendas, board 5 packages, communications, and other materials of the Yahoo board of directors ("Board"), 6 Yahoo's Audit and Finance Committee ("AFC"), Yahoo's Strategic Review Committee ("SRC"), 7 and Yahoo's Special Cybersecurity Review Committee ("SCRC" or the "Independent 8 Committee").

9 California Plaintiffs have also conducted four depositions, as follows:

- 10 • Defendant McInerney was deposed on April 28, 2017. McInerney was a member 11 of Yahoo's Board and a member of the AFC since April 2012 and until the 12 completion of the sale of Yahoo's operating assets to Verizon. McInerney also 13 served as the Chair of the SRC and currently serves as Altaba's CEO.
- 14 • Defendant Brandt was deposed on May 9, 2017. Brandt has served as a member of 15 the Board since March 2016 and as the Chairman of the Board since January 2017.
16 Brandt was previously a member and Chair of the AFC, a member of the SRC, and 17 a member and Chair of the SCRC.
- 18 • Non-party Stamos was deposed on May 25, 2017. Stamos previously served as 19 Yahoo's Chief Information Security Officer ("CISO").
- 20 • Non-party Martinez was deposed on May 25, 2017. Martinez previously served as 21 Yahoo's Senior Director of Incident Response. Following Stamos's departure from 22 Yahoo, Martinez also served as interim CISO at Yahoo.

23 As to the legal merits of California Plaintiffs' claims, the parties have expended significant 24 time and resources litigating two rounds of demurrers, briefing Yahoo's motion to stay, briefing 25 several discovery-related motions (including the motion to expedite discovery and motions to 26 quash), and briefing California Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction.

27 Counsel for certain of the Settling Parties engaged in extensive efforts to resolve the Yahoo 28 Shareholder and Derivative Actions, including participating in a full-day mediation on April 5,

1 2018, before the Honorable Daniel Weinstein (Ret.) in San Francisco, California. Although the 2 participants were not able to reach a settlement on the day of the mediation, they continued arm's-3 length negotiations in the weeks that followed the mediation, and reached an agreement-in-4 principle to resolve the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions on the terms set out herein.

5 III. PLAINTIFFS' CLAIMS AND THE BENEFITS OF SETTLEMENT

6 As discussed above, California Plaintiffs' Counsel have reviewed and analyzed more than 7 33,000 pages of documents and have conducted four depositions. In addition, California Plaintiffs' 8 Counsel have reviewed and analyzed data from many other sources specific to this matter, 9 including, but not limited to: (1) Yahoo's public filings with the SEC, press releases, 10 announcements, transcripts of investor conference calls, and news articles; (2) investigations 11 conducted by the SEC, the FTC, the DOJ, and other governmental agencies into the Securities 12 Incidents; (3) securities analyst, business, and financial media reports about Yahoo and the 13 Security Incidents; and (4) filings in the related securities class action and consumer data privacy 14 action. California Plaintiffs' Counsel have also (1) researched the applicable law with respect to 15 the claims asserted (or which could be asserted) in the shareholder derivative actions and the 16 potential defenses thereto; (2) researched, drafted, and filed complaints, motion for preliminary 17 injunction, and oppositions to demurrers and motion to stay; (3) prepared a detailed mediation 18 statement; (4) participated in a full-day mediation; and (5) engaged in months-long settlement 19 discussions with counsel for Yahoo, Verizon, and the Individual Defendants.

20 Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel believe that the claims asserted in the Yahoo Shareholder and 21 Derivative Actions have merit and that their investigation of the evidence supports the claims 22 asserted. Without conceding the merit of any of the Settling Defendants' defenses, and in light of 23 the benefits of the Settlement as well as to avoid the potentially protracted time, expense, and 24 uncertainty associated with continued litigation, including potential trial(s) and appeal(s), Settling 25 Plaintiffs and Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel have concluded that it is desirable that the Yahoo
26 Shareholder and Derivative Actions be fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms 27 and conditions set forth in this Stipulation. Settling Plaintiffs and Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel 28 recognize the significant risk, expense, and length of continued proceedings necessary to prosecute

1 the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions against the Settling Defendants through trial(s) and 2 through possible appeal(s). Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel have also taken into account the uncertain
3 outcome and the risk of any litigation, especially complex litigation such as the Yahoo Shareholder
4 and Derivative Actions, the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation, the cost to Altaba—5 on behalf of which Plaintiffs seek to litigate—and distraction to management of Altaba that would 6 result from extended litigation. Based on their evaluation, and in light of what Settling Plaintiffs'
7 Counsel believe to be the significant benefits conferred upon Altaba and Current Altaba 8 Shareholders as a result of the Settlement, Settling Plaintiffs and Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel have 9 determined that the Settlement is in the best interests of Settling Plaintiffs, Yahoo, and Current 10 Altaba Shareholders, and have agreed to settle the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions upon 11 the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein.

12 In addition, Judge Weinstein — the mediator who presided over the parties' extensive 13 mediation efforts — has concluded that the proposed Settlement is fair and reasonable. Judge 14 Weinstein is familiar with the claims at issue in this case, as well as the risks to all parties of 15 continuing to litigate the claims. He also presided over the mediation in the related securities class 16 action, where a settlement recently received final approval from the Federal Court.

17 Moreover, the Settling Parties (other than Verizon, which takes no position with respect to 18 the issue) agree that the California Plaintiffs' prosecution of the direct claims and motion for 19 preliminary injunction conferred substantial benefit to Yahoo and Yahoo shareholders, so as to 20 justify the Proxy Litigation Fee Award as defined in Paragraph 5.7 below. Specifically, on May 21 17, 2017, Plaintiff Spain moved for a preliminary injunction, seeking to enjoin Yahoo 22 shareholders' vote on the transaction until Yahoo disclosed certain material facts relevant to the 23 proxy. The motion identified eight allegedly material omissions from the proxy.

24 On May 24, 2017, Yahoo provided supplemental proxy disclosures, disclosing some of the 25 material facts that Plaintiff Spain contended were omitted from the proxy.

26 The California State Court held a hearing on Plaintiff Spain's motion for preliminary 27 injunction on June 6, 2017. Following the hearing, the California State Court granted in part and 28 denied in part the motion for preliminary injunction. Among other things, the Court concluded

1 that Yahoo's May 24, 2017 filing mooted or addressed four out of the eight allegedly material
2 omissions identified by Plaintiff Spain. The Court further found in Plaintiff Spain's favor as to
3 one of the remaining four material omissions and ordered Yahoo to provide further supplemental 4 proxy disclosures, advising the shareholders of the value of the purchase price adjustment.
5 Following the hearing, these disclosures were provided by Yahoo on June 6, 2017 via the filing of 6 a supplement to the proxy statement on Schedule 14A.

7 IV. DEFENDANTS' DENIALS OF WRONGDOING AND LIABILITY

8 The Individual Defendants have denied and continue to deny that they have committed or 9 attempted to commit any violations of law, any breaches of fiduciary duty owed to Yahoo, or any 10 wrongdoing whatsoever and expressly maintain that they diligently and scrupulously complied 11 with any and all fiduciary and other legal duties. The Settling Defendants assert, among other 12 things, that Plaintiffs lack standing to litigate direct claims because all Plaintiffs' claims belong to 13 Altaba, and that Plaintiffs lack standing to litigate derivatively on behalf of Altaba because the 14 Settling Plaintiffs have not yet pleaded, and cannot properly plead, that a demand on Altaba's 15 Board of Directors would be futile. However, to avoid the costs, disruption, and distraction of 16 further litigation, and without admitting that California Plaintiffs and plaintiffs in the other Yahoo
17 Shareholder and Derivative Actions have standing to bring any claims in the Yahoo Shareholder 18 and Derivative Actions, the validity of any allegation made in the Yahoo Shareholder and 19 Derivative Actions, or any liability with respect thereto, the Individual Defendants have concluded 20 that it is desirable that the claims against them be settled and dismissed on the terms reflected in 21 this Stipulation.

22 Verizon denies and continues to deny that it engaged in any actionable misconduct 23 whatsoever, and disputes the validity of the claims and allegations asserted against it. It has agreed 24 to waive the costs it incurred in this action as set forth in Paragraph 5.10 below, solely to facilitate 25 settlement and avoid the expense of further litigation.

26 Altaba denies that Plaintiffs have standing to bring direct claims because all Plaintiffs' 27 claims belong to Altaba and deny that Plaintiffs have standing to litigate derivatively on behalf of 28 Altaba because demand on the Altaba Board is not futile. However, to avoid the costs, disruption,

1 and distraction of further litigation, Altaba has concluded that it is desirable that the claims asserted 2 in the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions be settled and dismissed on the terms reflected 3 in this Stipulation.

4 Neither this Stipulation, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor entry of the Judgment, nor 5 any document or exhibit attached to or referred to in this Stipulation, nor any action taken to carry 6 out this Stipulation, is or may be construed as, used as, or argued to be evidence of the validity or 7 merit of any of the Released Claims, or as an admission by or against any Settling Defendant of 8 any fault, wrongdoing, or concession of liability whatsoever.

9 V. TERMS OF STIPULATION AND AGREEMENT OF SETTLEMENT

10 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and among 11 Plaintiffs (for themselves and derivatively on behalf of Altaba), the Settling Defendants, and 12 Altaba, each by and through their respective attorneys of record, that in exchange for the 13 consideration set forth below and the benefits flowing to the Settling Parties from the Settlement, 14 and subject to the approval of the Court, the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions and the 15 Released Claims shall be fully, finally, and forever compromised, settled, discharged, relinquished, 16 and released, and each of the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions shall be dismissed with 17 prejudice, with full preclusive effect, as to all Settling Parties, upon and subject to the terms and 18 conditions of the Stipulation, as set forth below.

19 1. Terms of the Settlement

20 1.1 In consideration of the Settlement, and subject to the terms and conditions 21 of this Stipulation, the Settling Defendants, as separately agreed between them, shall cause their 22 insurance carriers to pay twenty-nine million dollars ($29,000,000.00) in cash ("Settlement 23 Amount") into a Derivative Escrow Account established for the settlement of the California
24 Derivative Action, Delaware Derivative Action, and Federal Derivative Action within fifteen (15) 25 business days after preliminary approval of the Settlement by the California State Court. The 26 Settlement Amount, plus any interest earned thereon, will be used to pay the Derivative Fee and 27 Expense Award, Taxes, and Tax Expenses, as provided in Paragraphs 2 and 5 below. The 28 Settlement Amount, less any amounts used to satisfy the Derivative Fee and Expense Award,

1 Taxes, and Tax Expenses, shall be released and paid to Altaba upon entry of Judgment and the 2 Judgment becoming Final in accordance with Definitions Paragraph (x) above.

3 1.2 Altaba specifically acknowledges that the Company and its shareholders
4 received valuable consideration as a direct result of the California Plaintiffs' work on the Proxy
5 Litigation, that the supplemental proxy disclosures issued by Yahoo on March 24, 2017, and June 6 6, 2017, were the direct result of the California Plaintiffs' work on the Proxy Litigation, and that 7 Yahoo's supplemental proxy disclosures provided a substantial benefit to Yahoo's shareholders, 8 including the Settling Plaintiffs.

9 2. Derivative Escrow Account

10 2.1 The Derivative Escrow Agent shall invest amount(s) deposited in the 11 Derivative Escrow Account pursuant to Paragraph 1.1 above exclusively in United States Treasury 12 Bills or other instruments backed by the Full Faith & Credit of the United States Government or 13 an Agency thereof, or fully insured by the United States Government or an Agency thereof, and 14 shall reinvest the proceeds of these instruments as they mature in similar instruments at their then-15 current market rates. All risks related to the investment of funds in the Derivative Escrow Account 16 in accordance with the investment guidelines set forth in this Paragraph shall be borne by the 17 Derivative Escrow Account.

18 2.2 The Derivative Escrow Agent shall not disburse any funds in the Derivative 19 Escrow Account, except (i) as provided in the Stipulation pursuant to Paragraphs 2.4(a)–(c), 2.5, 20 and 5.3; or (ii) or by an order of the California State Court.

21 2.3 Subject to further order(s) and/or directions as may be made by the 22 California State Court, or as provided in the Stipulation, the Derivative Escrow Agent is authorized 23 to execute such transactions as are consistent with the terms of the Stipulation.

24 2.4 All funds held by the Derivative Escrow Agent in the Derivative Escrow 25 Account shall be deemed and considered to be in custodia legis of the California State Court, and 26 shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the California State Court, until such time as such funds 27 shall be distributed as provided in the Stipulation pursuant to Paragraphs 2.4(a)–(c), 2.5, and 5.3 28 and/or further order(s) of the California State Court.

1 2.4(a) The Settling Parties and the Derivative Escrow Agent agree
2 to treat the funds in the Derivative Escrow Account as being at all times a “qualified settlement 3 fund” within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1. In addition, Co-Lead Counsel, as the 4 “administrators” of the Derivative Escrow Account within the meaning of § 1.468B of the Internal 5 Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, shall timely 6 make such elections as necessary or advisable to carry out the provisions of this paragraph, 7 including making the “relation-back election” (as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1) back to the 8 earliest permitted date. Such elections shall be made in compliance with the procedures and 9 requirements contained in such regulations. It shall be the responsibility of the Derivative Escrow 10 Agent to timely and properly prepare and deliver the necessary documentation for signature by all 11 necessary parties, and thereafter to cause the appropriate filing to occur.

12 2.4(b) For the purpose of § 1.468B of the Internal Revenue Code of 13 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, the “administrators” of the 14 Derivative Escrow Account shall be Co-Lead Counsel. Co-Lead Counsel shall timely and properly 15 file all informational and other tax returns necessary or advisable with respect to the funds in the 16 Derivative Escrow Account (including without limitation the returns described in Treas. Reg. § 17 1.468B-2(k)). Such returns (as well as the election described in subparagraph 2.4(a) above) shall 18 be consistent with Paragraph 2.4 above and in all events shall reflect that all Taxes (including any 19 estimated taxes, interest, or penalties) on the income earned by the funds in the Derivative Escrow 20 Account shall be paid out of the Derivative Escrow Account.

21 2.4(c) All (i) taxes (including any estimated taxes, interest, or 22 penalties) arising with respect to the income earned by funds in the Derivative Escrow Account 23 (“Taxes”), and (ii) expenses and costs incurred in connection with the operation and 24 implementation of Paragraph 2.4 (including, without limitation, expenses of tax attorneys and/or 25 accountants and mailing and distribution costs and expenses relating to filing the returns described 26 in Paragraph 2.4(b) above) (“Tax Expenses”), shall be paid out of the Derivative Escrow Account.
27 Further, Taxes and Tax Expenses shall be timely paid by the Derivative Escrow Agent out of the 28 funds in the Derivative Escrow Account without prior order from the Court. The Settling

1 Defendants and their counsel agree to cooperate with Co-Lead Counsel and their tax attorneys and 2 accountants to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Paragraph.
3 However, the Settling Parties shall not have any responsibility or liability for any acts or omissions 4 of the Derivative Escrow Agent or its agents with respect to the obligations and duties of the 5 Derivative Escrow Agent as described herein.

6 2.5 Any administrative costs incurred in connection with the management of 7 the Derivative Escrow Account shall be paid by the Derivative Escrow Agent.

8 3. Procedure for Implementing the Settlement

9 3.1 Promptly after the execution of this Stipulation, California Plaintiffs' 10 Counsel shall submit the Stipulation together with its exhibits to the California State Court and file
11 a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement, substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached 12 hereto, requesting, inter alia: (i) preliminary approval of the Settlement set forth in this 13 Stipulation; (ii) approval of the method of providing notice of pendency of proposed Settlement to 14 Current Altaba Shareholders; (iii) approval of the forms of Notice attached hereto as Exhibit B-1 15 and Exhibit B-2; and (iv) a date for the Settlement Hearing.

16 3.2 Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the California State Court's entry of the 17 Preliminary Approval Order, Altaba shall: (1) cause a copy of the Summary Notice, substantially 18 in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B-2, to be published twice in the national edition of the 19 Investors' Business Daily; and (2) post the Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as 20 Exhibit B-1, and this Stipulation on the Investor Relations page of Altaba's company website, 21 which posting shall be maintained through the date of the Settlement Hearing. Altaba shall cause 22 to be paid all costs of such publishing and posting. Co-Lead Counsel will also post the Notice on 23 their firms' websites.

24 3.3 The Settling Parties believe the content and manner of the Notice, as set forth 25 in the prior paragraph, constitutes adequate and reasonable notice to Current Altaba Shareholders 26 pursuant to applicable law and due process.

27 3.4 The Settling Parties agree to request that the Court hold a hearing in the 28 California Derivative Action fifty (50) days after Notice is given during which the California State

1 Court will consider and determine whether the Judgment, substantially in the form of Exhibit C 2 hereto, should be entered: (a) approving the terms of the Settlement as fair, reasonable, and 3 adequate; and (b) dismissing with prejudice the California Derivative Action against the Settling 4 Defendants.

5 3.5 Pending the Effective Date, all proceedings and discovery in the Yahoo 6 Shareholder and Derivative Actions shall be stayed except as otherwise provided herein, and the 7 Settling Parties shall not file, prosecute, instigate, or in any way participate in the commencement or 8 prosecution of any of the Released Claims.

9 4. Dismissal of the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions

10 4.1 This Settlement is conditioned on the Delaware Derivative Action, the Federal 11 Derivative Action, and the Writ Action being dismissed with prejudice.

12 4.2 Within fifteen (15) days after the California State Court grants final approval
13 of the Settlement, the Settling Plaintiffs shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause 14 to be done, all things necessary, proper, and appropriate to secure dismissal with prejudice of the 15 Delaware Derivative Action, the Federal Derivative Action, and the Writ Action in their entirety as 16 to all parties in those actions. In the interim, the Settling Parties shall cooperate to, at a minimum, 17 secure a postponement of any hearing or trial date(s) while this Settlement is under consideration by 18 the California State Court.

19 5. Plaintiffs' Counsel's Separately Negotiated Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

20 5.1 After negotiating and reaching agreement on the principal terms of the 21 Settlement, Co-Lead Counsel and Altaba, with the assistance of Judge Weinstein, separately 22 negotiated an appropriate amount of attorneys' fees and expenses to be paid out of (and not in 23 addition to) the Settlement Amount, to compensate Plaintiffs' Counsel for their work in the case 24 and the substantial benefits conferred upon Altaba and its stockholders by the Settlement.

25 5.2 Co-Lead Counsel intend to seek an application for an award amount not to 26 exceed 30% of the Settlement Amount for attorneys' fees and up to $250,000 in litigation 27 expenses. The amount of attorneys' fees and expenses actually awarded by the California State 28 Court to Co-Lead Counsel shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Derivative Fee and Expense

1 Award.”

2 5.3 The Derivative Fee and Expense Award shall be payable from the 3 Derivative Escrow Account to a joint-signature account established by Co-Lead Counsel 4 immediately upon award by the Court, and shall be immediately releasable upon receipt by Co-
5 Lead Counsel, notwithstanding the existence of any timely-filed objections thereto, or potential 6 for appeal therefrom, or collateral attack on the Settlement or any part thereof, and subject to 7 Settling Plaintiffs’ Counsel’s several obligation to make appropriate refunds or repayments to the 8 Derivative Escrow Account, plus interest earned thereon at the same net rate as earned by the 9 Derivative Escrow Account, if and when as a result of any appeal and/or further proceedings on 10 remand, or successful collateral attack, approval of the Settlement is denied or overturned or the 11 Derivative Fee and Expense Award is reduced or reversed and such order denying or overturning 12 the Settlement or reducing or reversing the Derivative Fee and Expense Award is Final. In such 13 event, each of the Settling Plaintiffs’ Counsel shall, within thirty (30) business days from the event
14 which requires repayment of the Derivative Fee and Expense Award, refund to the Derivative 15 Escrow Account such portion of the Derivative Fee and Expense Award paid to or received by 16 each of them, along with interest, as described above.

17 5.4 The Settling Parties further stipulate that Co-Lead Counsel may apply to the 18 California State Court for service awards of up to $10,000 for Plaintiff Spain and up to $5,000 for 19 each of the other California Plaintiffs, to be paid upon Court approval, in recognition of their 20 participation and efforts in the prosecution of the California Derivative Action and the Proxy 21 Litigation (“Service Awards”). The Service Awards, if approved by the California State Court, 22 shall be paid to the California Plaintiffs out of the Derivative Fee and Expense Award. Altaba 23 and the Settling Defendants shall not be separately liable for any portion of any Service Award

24 5.5 Co-Lead Counsel shall allocate the Derivative Fee and Expense Award 25 amongst Settling Plaintiffs’ Counsel in a manner which they, in good faith, believe reflects the 26 contributions of such counsel to the institution, prosecution, and settlement of the California 27 Derivative Action, Delaware Derivative Action, and Federal Derivative Action. Altaba and the 28 Settling Defendants shall have no responsibility or involvement in the allocation of attorneys’ fees

1 or expenses.

2 5.6 Altaba and the Settling Defendants will take no position regarding the 3 Derivative Fee and Expense Award or the Service Awards.

4 5.7 Also after negotiating and reaching agreement on the principal terms of the 5 Settlement, Co-Lead Counsel and Altaba, with the assistance of Judge Weinstein, separately
6 negotiated an appropriate amount of attorneys' fees to be paid directly by Altaba to Co-Lead 7 Counsel, in recognition of the value conveyed to the Company and its shareholders by the 8 California Plaintiffs' work on the Proxy Litigation, including as a result of the supplemental proxy 9 disclosures obtained for the benefit of Yahoo's shareholders, as a result of the California Plaintiffs' 10 efforts. Altaba has agreed to pay Co-Lead Counsel, subject to the approval of the Court, the 11 amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000) to compensate them for the benefits they obtained in 12 the Proxy Litigation. Each of Altaba and the Settling Defendants (other than Verizon, which takes 13 no position on the matter) further agrees that a payment in this amount from Altaba to Co-Lead 14 Counsel is reasonable as compensation for Co-Lead Counsel's work in the Proxy Litigation and 15 in light of the benefits conferred on Yahoo and its shareholders. The amount of attorneys' fees 16 awarded by the California State Court pursuant to this paragraph shall hereinafter be referred to as 17 the "Proxy Litigation Fee Award."

18 5.8 The Proxy Litigation Fee Award shall be payable by Altaba to a joint-19 signature account established by Co-Lead Counsel within fifteen (15) business days of any Proxy 20 Litigation Fee Award being ordered by the Court, and shall be immediately releasable upon receipt 21 by Co-Lead Counsel, notwithstanding the existence of any timely-filed objections thereto, or 22 potential for appeal therefrom, or collateral attack on the Settlement or any part thereof, and subject 23 to Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel's several obligation to make appropriate refunds or repayments to 24 Altaba, plus interest at the same net rate as earned by the Derivative Escrow Account, if and when 25 as a result of any appeal and/or further proceedings on remand, or successful collateral attack, 26 approval of the Settlement is denied or overturned or the Proxy Litigation Fee Award is reduced 27 or reversed and such order denying or overturning the Settlement or reducing or reversing the 28 Proxy Litigation Fee Award is Final. In such event, each of the Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel shall,

1 within thirty (30) business days from the event which requires repayment of the Proxy Litigation
2 Fee Award, refund to Altaba such portion of the Proxy Litigation Fee Award paid to or received 3 by each of them, along with interest, as described above.

4 5.9 The attorneys' fees and costs approved by the California State Court, 5 including any Derivative Fee and Expense Award and any Proxy Litigation Fee Award, shall 6 constitute full satisfaction of the Settling Defendants' and Altaba's obligations to pay amounts to 7 any person, attorney, or law firm for attorneys' fees, expenses, or costs in the Yahoo Shareholder
8 and Derivative Actions incurred on behalf of the Settling Plaintiffs, and shall relieve the Settling 9 Defendants and Altaba from any other claims or liability to any other attorney or law firm for any 10 attorneys' fees, expenses, or costs to which any of them may claim to be entitled on behalf of 11 Settling Plaintiffs.

12 5.10 Except as otherwise provided herein or except as provided pursuant to 13 indemnification or insurance rights, each of the Settling Parties shall bear his, her, or its own costs, 14 expenses, and attorneys' fees.

15 5.11 The California State Court's decision granting, in whole or in part, the 16 application by Co-Lead Counsel for a Derivative Fee and Expense Award, a Proxy Litigation Fee 17 Award, and Service Awards is not a condition of the Stipulation or to entry of the Judgment. The 18 request by Lead Counsel for a Derivative Fee and Expense Award, for a Proxy Litigation Fee 19 Award, and for Service Awards is to be considered by the California State Court separately from 20 the California State Court's consideration of the question whether the Settlement is fair, 21 reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of Altaba and Current Altaba Shareholders. Any 22 orders or proceedings relating to any request by Co-Lead Counsel for a Derivative Fee and 23 Expense Award, a Proxy Litigation Fee Award, or Service Awards, or any appeal from any order 24 or proceedings relating thereto, shall not affect the validity or finality of the Settlement, operate to 25 terminate or cancel the Stipulation, and/or affect or delay either the Effective Date or the finality 26 of the Judgment approving the Settlement. Settling Plaintiffs and Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel may 27 not cancel or terminate the Stipulation or the Settlement based on the California State Court's or 28 any appellate court's ruling with respect to any application for a Derivative Fee and Expense

1 Award, a Proxy Litigation Fee Award, or Service Awards.

2 6. Releases

3 6.1 Upon the Effective Date, the Settling Plaintiffs shall be deemed to have 4 fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged the Released Plaintiff Claims
5 (including Unknown Claims) against the Released Defendant Persons and the Released Altaba
6 Persons, and shall be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any Released Plaintiff Claims 7 against any Released Defendant Persons or against any Released Altaba Persons.

8 6.2 Upon the Effective Date, all Current Altaba Shareholders shall be deemed 9 to have fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged the Released Plaintiff 10 Claims that could have been asserted derivatively on behalf of the Company (including Unknown 11 Claims) against the Released Defendant Persons, and shall be forever barred and enjoined from 12 asserting any Released Plaintiff Claims that could have been asserted derivatively on behalf of the 13 Company against any Released Defendant Persons.

14 6.3 Upon the Effective Date, Altaba shall be deemed to have fully, finally, and 15 forever released, relinquished, and discharged the Released Plaintiff Claims (including Unknown 16 Claims) against the Released Defendant Persons, and shall be forever barred and enjoined from 17 asserting any Released Plaintiff Claims against any Released Defendant Persons.

18 6.4 Upon the Effective Date, each of the Settling Defendants and Altaba shall 19 be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged the Released 20 Defendant Claims (including Unknown Claims) against the Released Plaintiff Persons, and shall 21 be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any Released Defendant Claims against any 22 Released Plaintiff Persons.

23 6.5 Nothing herein shall in any way impair or restrict the rights of any Settling 24 Party to enforce the terms of the Stipulation.

25 7. Conditions of Settlement; Effect of Disapproval, Cancellation, or 26 Termination

27 7.1 The Effective Date of the Settlement shall be the date on which all of the 28 following events have occurred:

- a. approval of the Settlement at or after the Settlement Hearing following notice to Current Altaba Shareholders as set forth in Paragraph 3.2;
- b. entry of the Judgment, in all material respects in the form set forth as Exhibit C annexed hereto, approving the Settlement without awarding costs to any party, except as provided herein, dismissing the California Derivative Action with prejudice, and releasing the Released Defendant Persons from the Released Plaintiff Claims;
- c. payment of the Settlement Amount;
- d. the passing of the date upon which the Judgment becomes Final;
- e. dismissal with prejudice of the Delaware Derivative Action, Federal Derivative Action, and Writ Action; and
- f. the passing of the dates upon which each of the dismissal orders in each of the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions become Final.

7.2 If any of the conditions specified above in Paragraph 7.1 are not met, then the Stipulation shall be cancelled and terminated, unless all of the Settling Parties agree in writing to proceed with the Stipulation. If for any reason the Effective Date of this Stipulation does not occur, or if this Stipulation is in any way canceled, terminated, or fails to become Final in accordance with its terms: (i) all Settling Parties and Released Persons shall be restored to their respective positions prior to execution of this Stipulation; (ii) all releases delivered in connection with the Stipulation shall be null and void, except as otherwise provided for in the Stipulation; (iii) the Derivative Fee and Expense Award shall not be paid or, if already paid, shall be refunded to the Derivative Escrow Account in accordance with Paragraph 5.3; (iv) the Proxy Litigation Fee Award shall not be paid or, if already paid, shall be refunded to Altaba in accordance with Paragraph 5.8; and (v) all negotiations, proceedings, documents prepared, and statements made in connection herewith shall be without prejudice to the Settling Parties, shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission by any of the Settling Parties of any act, matter, or proposition, and shall not be used or referred to in any manner for any purpose (other than to enforce the terms remaining in effect) in any subsequent proceeding in the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions or in any other action or proceeding. In such event, the terms and provisions of this

1 Stipulation shall have no further force and effect with respect to the Settling Parties and shall not 2 be used in the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions or in any other proceeding for any 3 purpose.

4 8. Miscellaneous Provisions

5 8.1 The Settling Parties (i) acknowledge that it is their intent to consummate the 6 Settlement; and (ii) agree to act in good faith and cooperate to take all reasonable and necessary 7 steps to expeditiously implement the terms and conditions of the Settlement set forth in this 8 Stipulation.

9 8.2 The Settling Parties intend this Settlement to be a final and complete 10 resolution of all disputes between them arising out of, based upon, or related to the Yahoo 11 Shareholder and Derivative Actions and the Released Claims. The Settlement compromises claims 12 that are contested and shall not be deemed an admission by any Settling Party as to the merits of 13 any claim, allegation, or defense. The Settling Parties and their respective counsel agree that at all 14 times during the course of the litigation, each has complied with the requirements of the applicable 15 laws and rules of the Court. The Settling Parties agree that the Released Claims are being settled 16 voluntarily after consultation with an experienced mediator and competent legal counsel who were 17 fully competent to assess the strengths and weaknesses of their respective clients' claims or 18 defenses.

19 8.3 The Settling Parties agree that the terms of the Settlement were negotiated in 20 good faith by the Settling Parties, and reflect a settlement that was reached voluntarily after 21 consultation with competent legal counsel. The Settling Parties will request that the Judgment contain 22 a finding that during the course of the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions, the Settling Parties 23 and their respective counsel at all times complied with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil 24 Procedure 11, California Code of Civil Procedure § 128.7, and all other similar rules of professional 25 conduct. The Settling Parties reserve their right to rebut, in a manner that the parties determine to be 26 appropriate, any contention made in any public forum that the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative 27 Actions were brought or defended in bad faith or without a reasonable basis.

28 8.4 The Settling Parties agree Judge Weinstein shall retain jurisdiction over any 1 disputes related to the implementation and enforcement of the terms of this Stipulation and the 2 Settling Parties agree to attempt to resolve any such disputes with the assistance of Judge

3 Weinstein. If for any reason Judge Weinstein is unavailable or has a conflict, the Settling Parties 4 shall agree on a substitute neutral.

5 8.5 Each of the Settling Defendants expressly denies and continues to deny all 6 allegations of wrongdoing or liability against itself, himself or herself arising out of or relating to any 7 conduct, statements, acts, or omissions alleged, or which could have been alleged, in the Yahoo 8 Shareholder and Derivative Actions. Each of the Settling Defendants and Altaba reserves the right to 9 rebut any and all allegations of breach of fiduciary duty, wrongdoing, or liability, whatsoever, against 10 himself, herself, or itself. Neither the Stipulation (including any exhibits attached hereto) nor the 11 Settlement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of the 12 Stipulation or the Settlement: (i) is or may be deemed to be or may be offered, attempted to be offered, 13 or used or referred to in any way by the Settling Parties as a presumption, a concession, an admission, 14 or evidence of any fault, wrongdoing, or liability of any of the Settling Parties or of the validity of 15 any Released Claims; or (ii) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as a presumption, concession, 16 admission, or evidence of any liability, fault, or omission of any of the Released Persons in any civil, 17 criminal, or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency, or other tribunal. Neither 18 this Stipulation nor the Settlement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in 19 furtherance of this Stipulation or the Settlement, shall be admissible in any proceeding for any 20 purpose, except to enforce the terms of the Settlement, and except that the Released Persons may file 21 the Stipulation and/or the Judgment in any action or proceeding that may be brought against them to 22 support a defense or counterclaim based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, full faith 23 and credit, release, standing, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of 24 claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense or counterclaim.

25 8.6 Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel agree that within sixty (60) days of the Effective 26 Date, they will return to the producing party all documents and other discovery material obtained 27 from such producing party in any matter, including all documents produced by Yahoo or Altaba, 28 whether formally or informally in connection with the mediation ("Discovery Material"), or destroy

1 all such Discovery Material and certify to that fact; provided, however that Settling Plaintiffs' Counsel 2 shall be entitled to retain all filings, court papers, deposition and hearing transcripts, and attorney-
3 work product containing or reflecting Discovery Materials, subject to the requirement that Settling
4 Plaintiffs' Counsel shall not disclose any information contained or referenced in the Discovery
5 Material to any person except pursuant to a validly issued subpoena not subject to a motion to quash, 6 court order or agreement with Altaba.

7 8.7 All designations and agreements made and orders entered during the course 8 of the Yahoo Shareholder and Derivative Actions relating to the confidentiality of documents or 9 information shall survive this Settlement. Nothing in this Stipulation, or the negotiations relating 10 thereto, is intended to or shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any applicable privilege or 11 immunity, including, without limitation, the attorney-client privilege, the joint defense privilege, 12 or work product protection.

13 8.8 Nothing set forth herein shall constitute a release by the Individual 14 Defendants of their rights and obligations relating to indemnification or advancement of defense 15 costs arising from the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, Delaware law, or any 16 indemnification agreement, undertaking, insurance policy, or similar agreement.

17 8.9 The Stipulation and the exhibits attached hereto constitute the entire 18 agreement among the Settling Parties with respect to the Settlement, and supersede any and all prior 19 negotiations, discussions, agreements, or undertakings, whether oral or written, with respect to such 20 matters.

21 8.10 The exhibits to the Stipulation are material and integral parts hereof and are 22 fully incorporated herein by this reference.

23 8.11 The headings herein are used for the purpose of convenience only and are not 24 meant to have legal effect.

25 8.12 The Stipulation may be amended or modified only by a written instrument 26 signed by or on behalf of all the Settling Parties or their respective successors-in-interest.

27 8.13 This Stipulation shall be deemed drafted equally by all parties hereto.

28 8.14 The Stipulation and the Settlement shall be binding upon, and inure to the 1 benefit of, the Settling Parties and the Released Persons and their respective successors, assigns, heirs, 2 spouses, marital communities, executors, administrators, trustees in bankruptcy, and legal 3 representatives. The Settling Parties further agree that any planned, proposed, or actual sale, merger, 4 or change-in-control of Yahoo shall not void this Stipulation, and that in the event of a planned, 5 proposed, or actual sale, merger, or change-in-control of Yahoo, they will continue to seek final 6 approval of this Stipulation expeditiously, including but not limited to the Settlement terms reflected 7 in this Stipulation and any Fee and Expense Award.

8 8.15 The Stipulation and the exhibits attached hereto shall be considered to have 9 been negotiated, executed, and delivered, and to be wholly performed, in the State of California, and 10 the rights and obligations of the Settling Parties to the Stipulation shall be construed and enforced in 11 accordance with, and governed by, the internal, substantive laws of California without giving effect 12 to that State's choice-of-law principles.

13 8.16 No representations, warranties, or inducements have been made to any of the 14 Settling Parties concerning the Stipulation or its exhibits other than the representations, warranties, 15 and covenants contained and memorialized in such documents.

16 8.17 Settling Plaintiffs represent and warrant that they have not assigned or 17 transferred or attempted to assign or transfer, to any Person any Released Claim or any portion thereof 18 or interest therein.

19 8.18 Any failure by any party to this Stipulation to insist upon the strict 20 performance by any other party of any of the provisions of this Stipulation shall not be deemed a 21 waiver of any of the provisions, and such party, notwithstanding such failure, shall have the right 22 thereafter to insist upon the strict performance of any and all of the provisions of this Stipulation to 23 be performed by such other party.

24 8.19 In the event that any part of the Settlement is found to be unlawful, void, 25 unconscionable, or against public policy by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining terms 26 and conditions of the Settlement shall remain intact.

27 8.20 In the event that there exists a conflict or inconsistency between the terms of 28 this Stipulation and the terms of any exhibits hereto, the terms of this Stipulation shall prevail.

1 8.21 Each counsel or other Person executing the Stipulation or its exhibits on behalf 2 of any of the Settling Parties hereby warrants that such Person has the full authority to do so.

3 8.22 The Stipulation may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which 4 so executed shall be deemed to be an original and such counterparts together constitute one and the 5 same Stipulation. The Settling Parties agree that signatures submitted through facsimile or by e-6 mailing .PDF files or signed using DocuSign shall constitute original and valid signatures. A 7 complete set of executed counterparts shall be filed with the California State Court.

8 8.23 The California State Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to the 9 interpretation, implementation, and enforcement of the terms of this Stipulation, and the Settling 10 Parties and their counsel submit to the jurisdiction of the California State Court solely for purposes of 11 implementing and enforcing the Settlement embodied in this Stipulation.

12 8.24 Without further order of the California State Court, the Settling Parties may 13 agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of this Stipulation.

14 IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Settling Parties hereto have caused the Stipulation to be 15 executed, by their duly authorized attorneys.
